About the Forums:

The ICD Young Leaders' Forums are international networks of like-minded individuals with an interest in developing, supporting and sustaining intercultural relations.

The Aims of the Forums Are:

- To foster an international network of likeminded individuals who have an interest in supporting and strengthening intercultural relations between the countries and cultures in focus.
- To give Forum members a greater awareness of the history, development, and future of the field of cultural diplomacy and its application to the bilateral or multilateral relationship in focus.
- To offer Forum members access to a range of informed perspectives and insights on cultural, political, and economic issues in the relationship or region in focus.
- To support ongoing activity and projects, in particular leadership initiatives, by Forum members
